

Immanuel Lutheran College

Walk as Children of the Light

Principal

Following the appointment of the incumbent, Mr. Colin Minke to the position of Executive Director of Lutheran Education Victoria, New South Wales and Tasmania, the College Council invites applications from suitably qualified persons to the position of Principal of Immanuel Lutheran College, on the Sunshine Coast in Queensland.

Immanuel Lutheran College is a Prep to Year 12 independent school that has forged a reputation for excellence that goes well beyond the academic results of its students. Whilst our enviable academic record is fostered and celebrated, our College takes equal pride in focusing on the wellbeing and development of the 'whole' child, in line with Gospel principles. The College prides itself on delivering an authentic, rich and diverse education experience within the spectacular surroundings of a campus that is unrivalled on the Sunshine Coast.

This outstanding opportunity exists for a highly respected, passionate, and experienced leader with significant and successful experience in teaching and educational leadership, commitment to excellence in Christian co-education and an active communicant member of the Lutheran Church of Australia.

Application packs which include the guidelines for preparing an application are available on request by emailing Sandra McCullough, Executive Assistant, Lutheran Education Queensland.
